“Change is for the better...”-

President Ronald Reagan. Indeed 2003-2004 was a year of change for Moss Point High School, bringing a new feeling of hope and prosperity to the student body and faculty. With the addition of freshmen (9th grade) to MPHS, the school not only gained an extension in numbers, but a growth in vivid minds ready to soak up the knowledge being presented. The faculty was also expanded to include many new teachers, including a Ph.D. of English. Not only were there physical additions to Moss Point High School, but also a new approach to the philosophy of the educational process. “Education: Moss Point’s Roadmap to Success” was adopted as the school district’s new motto, and all the schools, especially the high school, displayed a commitment to put the new motto into action. Through improved test scores, newly enforced dress codes, new curricula, and advanced levels of higher learning preparation, Moss Point High set out on a mission to produce brilliant, well-rounded students, and inadvertently struck the match that eventually became the flame we call unity. Together, the minds and bodies populating Moss Point High School will forge into the future to truly become something to behold.

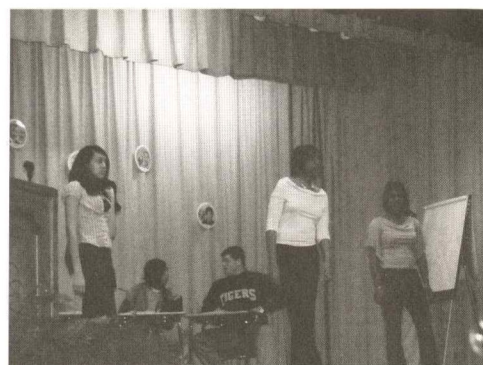

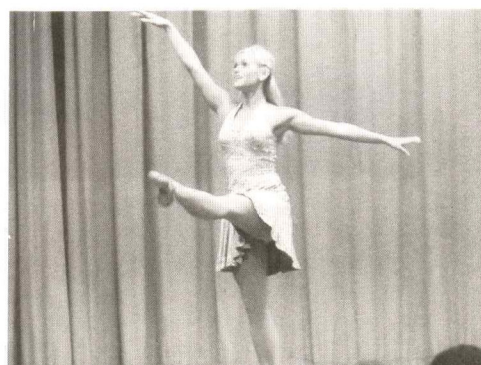

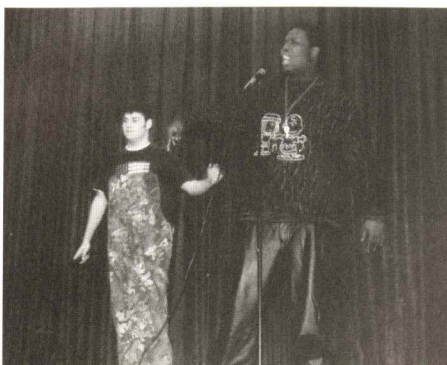

All for one, and one for all.

LENDING A HELPING HAND (above)- Student Council members, along with band director Mr. Shabazz, donate their time and blood in the annual school blood drive.

With a renewed commitment to education and improvement, Moss Point High School proved that actions speak much louder than words.

School events were alive and well this school year, making Moss Point High the frequent newspaper feature. The Drama Club, sponsored by Mr. Don Vardell, put on a series of stageplays, including 65 Mustang and The Shadow.

Our Forensics and Debate team, headed by Mrs. Shirley Owens, bestowed holiday cheer upon the entire student body with its Christmas production, featuring songs, skits, and even audience participation. Even Miss Mississippi herself, Allison Kellog, paid the school a visit, showcasing her talents and platform as to why and how she succeeded in obtaining her title.

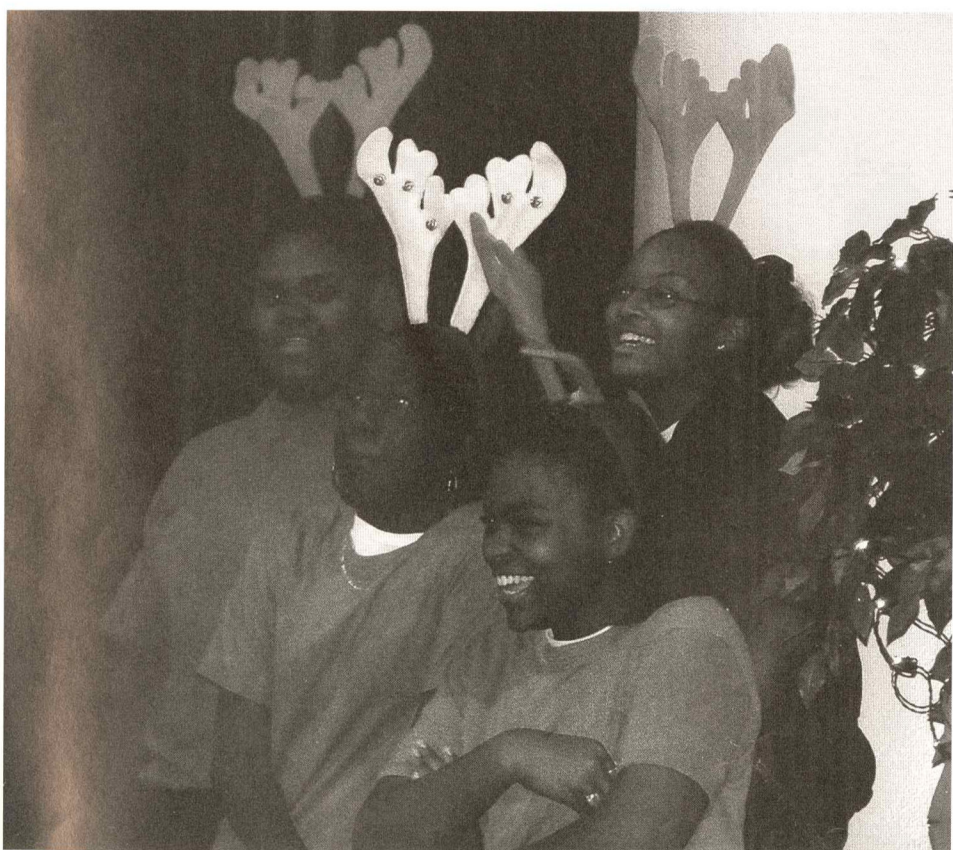

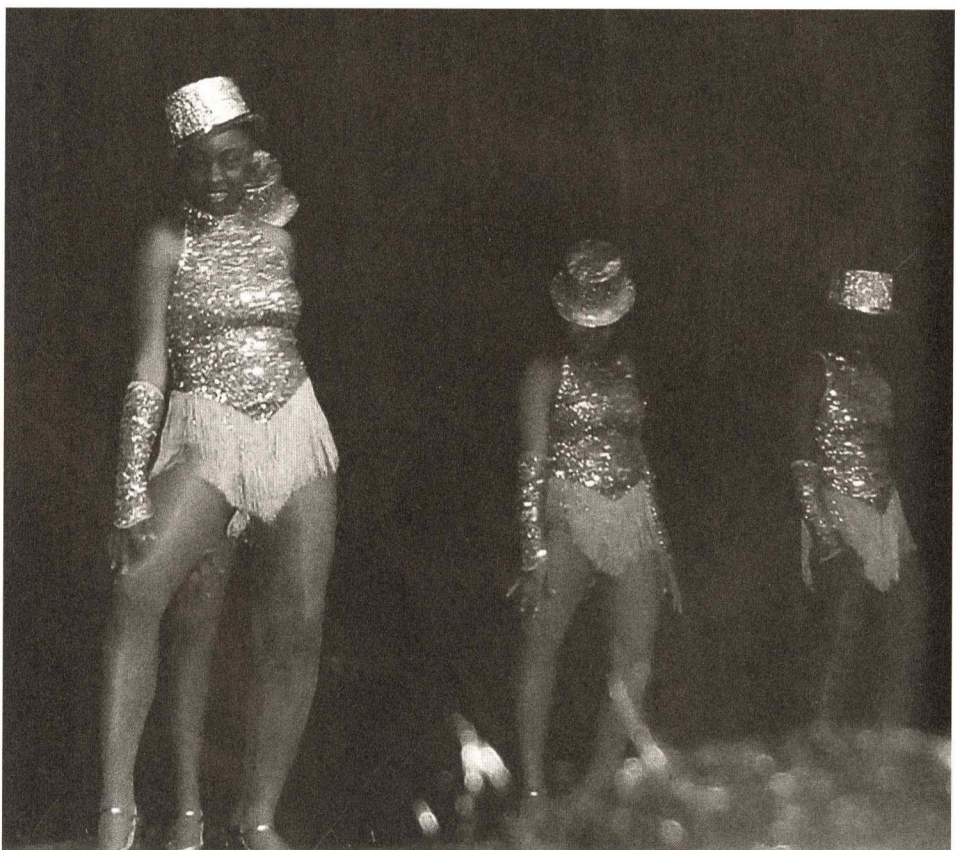

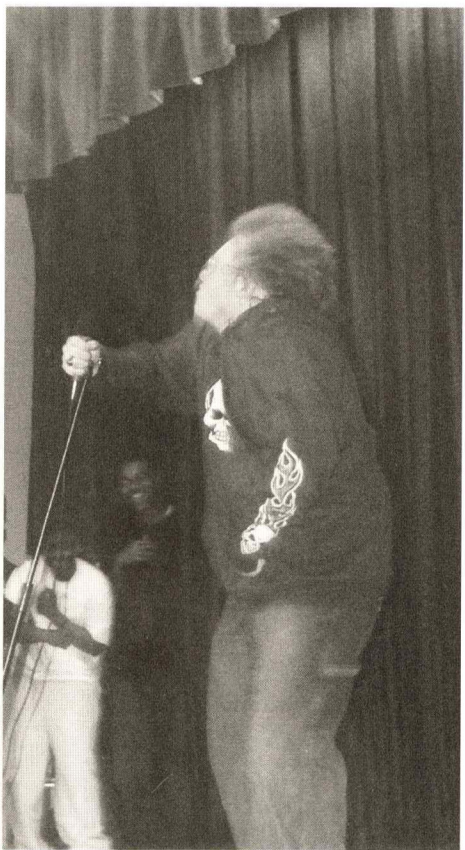

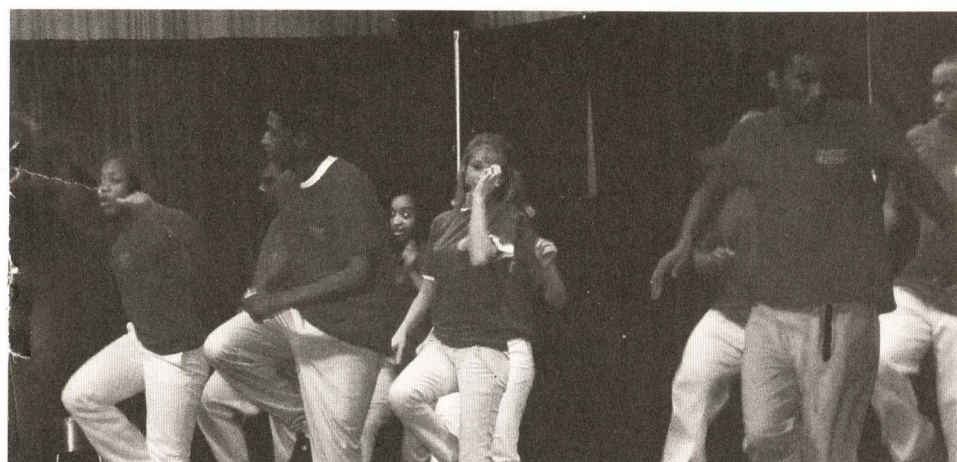

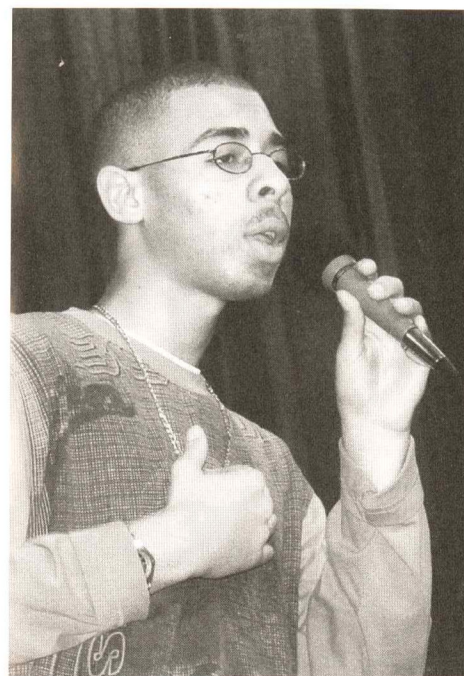

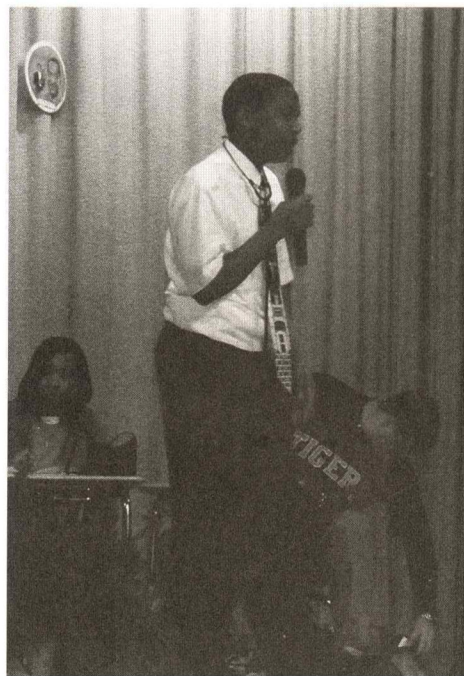

Whether it was through Black History programs, blood drives, or talent shows, Moss Point High School definitely created visual productions of the educational processes churning behind the classroom doors.

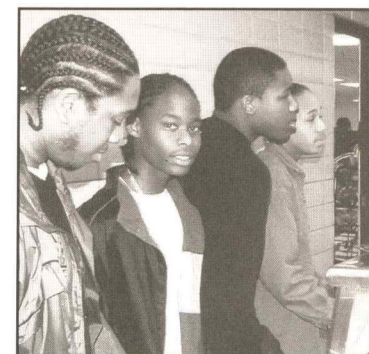

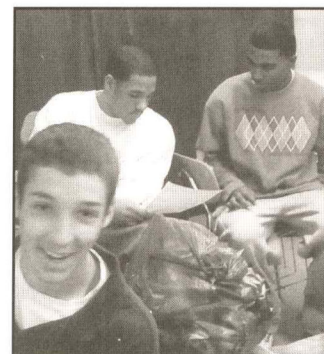

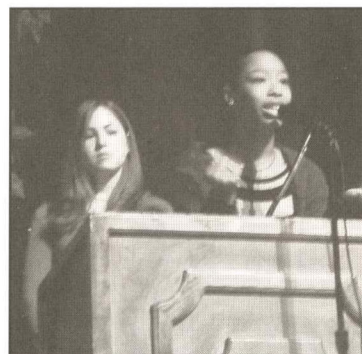

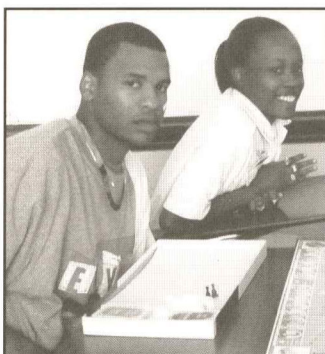

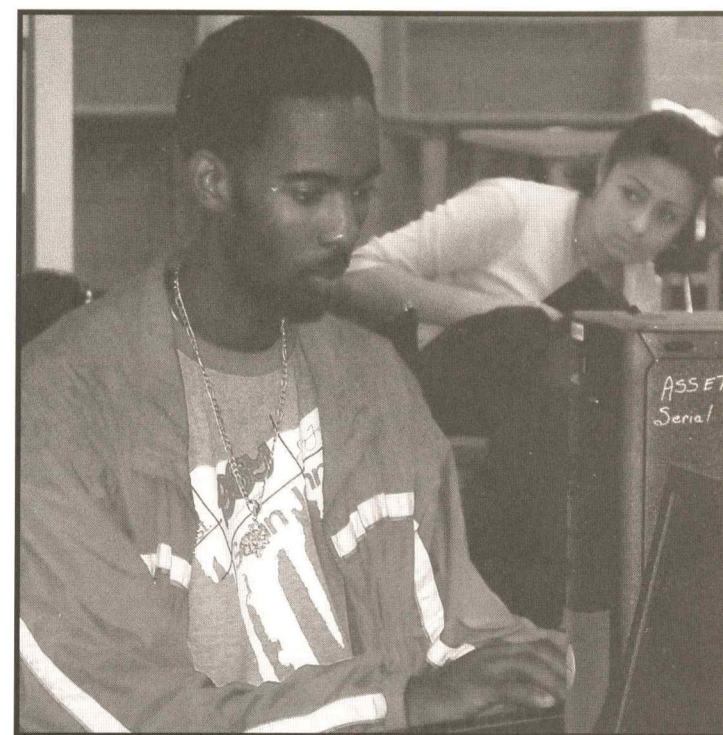

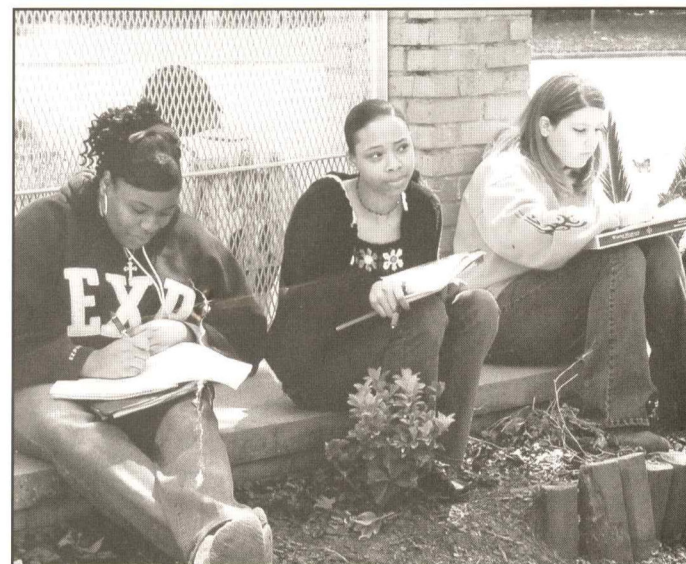

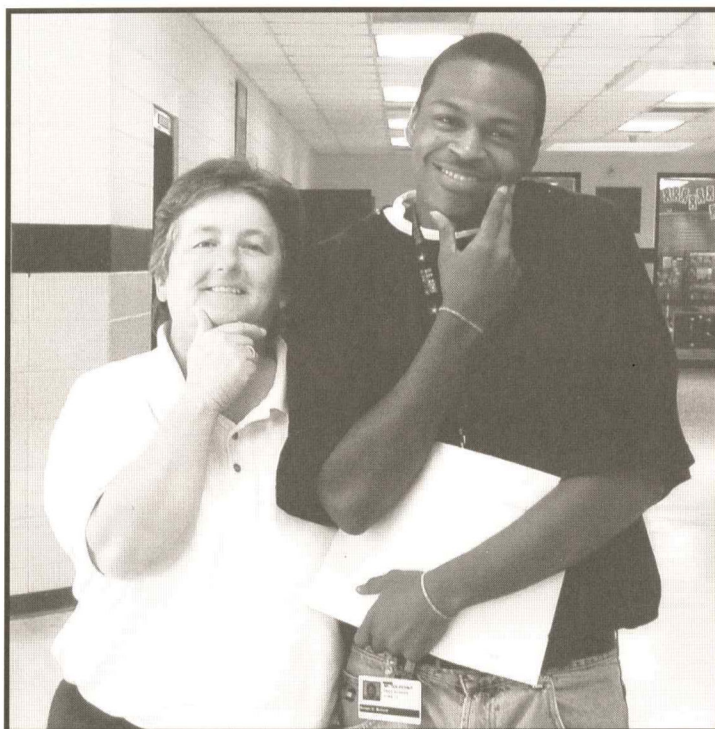

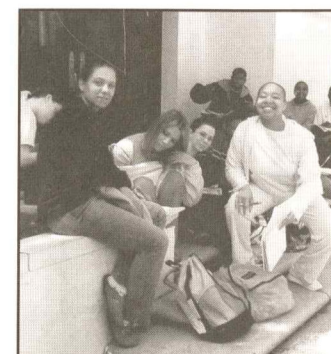

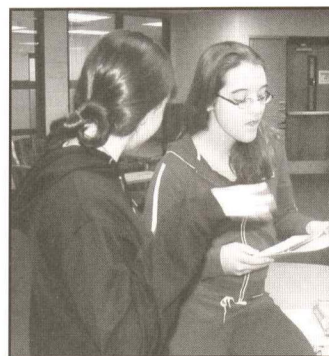

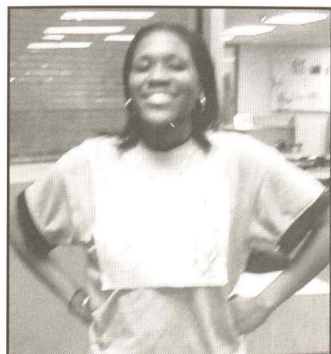

ACTING IT OUT (left)- The Drama Club puts on a spectacular production of the comedic play 65 Mustang.

LETTER PERFECT (right)- The "initial" purses ran amuck at Moss Point High this year, but the interesting thing was sometimes knowing that that person's "initial" wasn't theirs...and watching the corners of their mouths curl up when you asked whose initial it was.

HEY, WHAT'S IN A PURSE? (left)- Creativity was a must, as students started noticing purses made out of something completely crazy, such as juice containers, as seen here, duck tape, drink cans, and anything else these wacky minds could get their hands on.

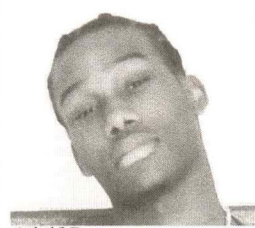

JERSEYS GALORE (above)- It was extremely hard to overlook the "throwback" jersey this year.

MORE LETTERS (right)- Joy Jackson models the ever-present "letter," also spotted on shirts and sweaters.

Homecoming Tidbits

This year's homecoming theme was "Haunt the Hounds," playing off the upcoming Halloween holiday. For a whole week, the school was overflowing with headstones, spiderwebs, and ghosts.

Spirit week was as creative and fun as always. Monday was Pajama Day, Tuesday was Tacky Day (a school favorite), Wednesday was Dress-Up Day, Thursday was Costume Day, and Friday was Blue, Gray, and White Day.

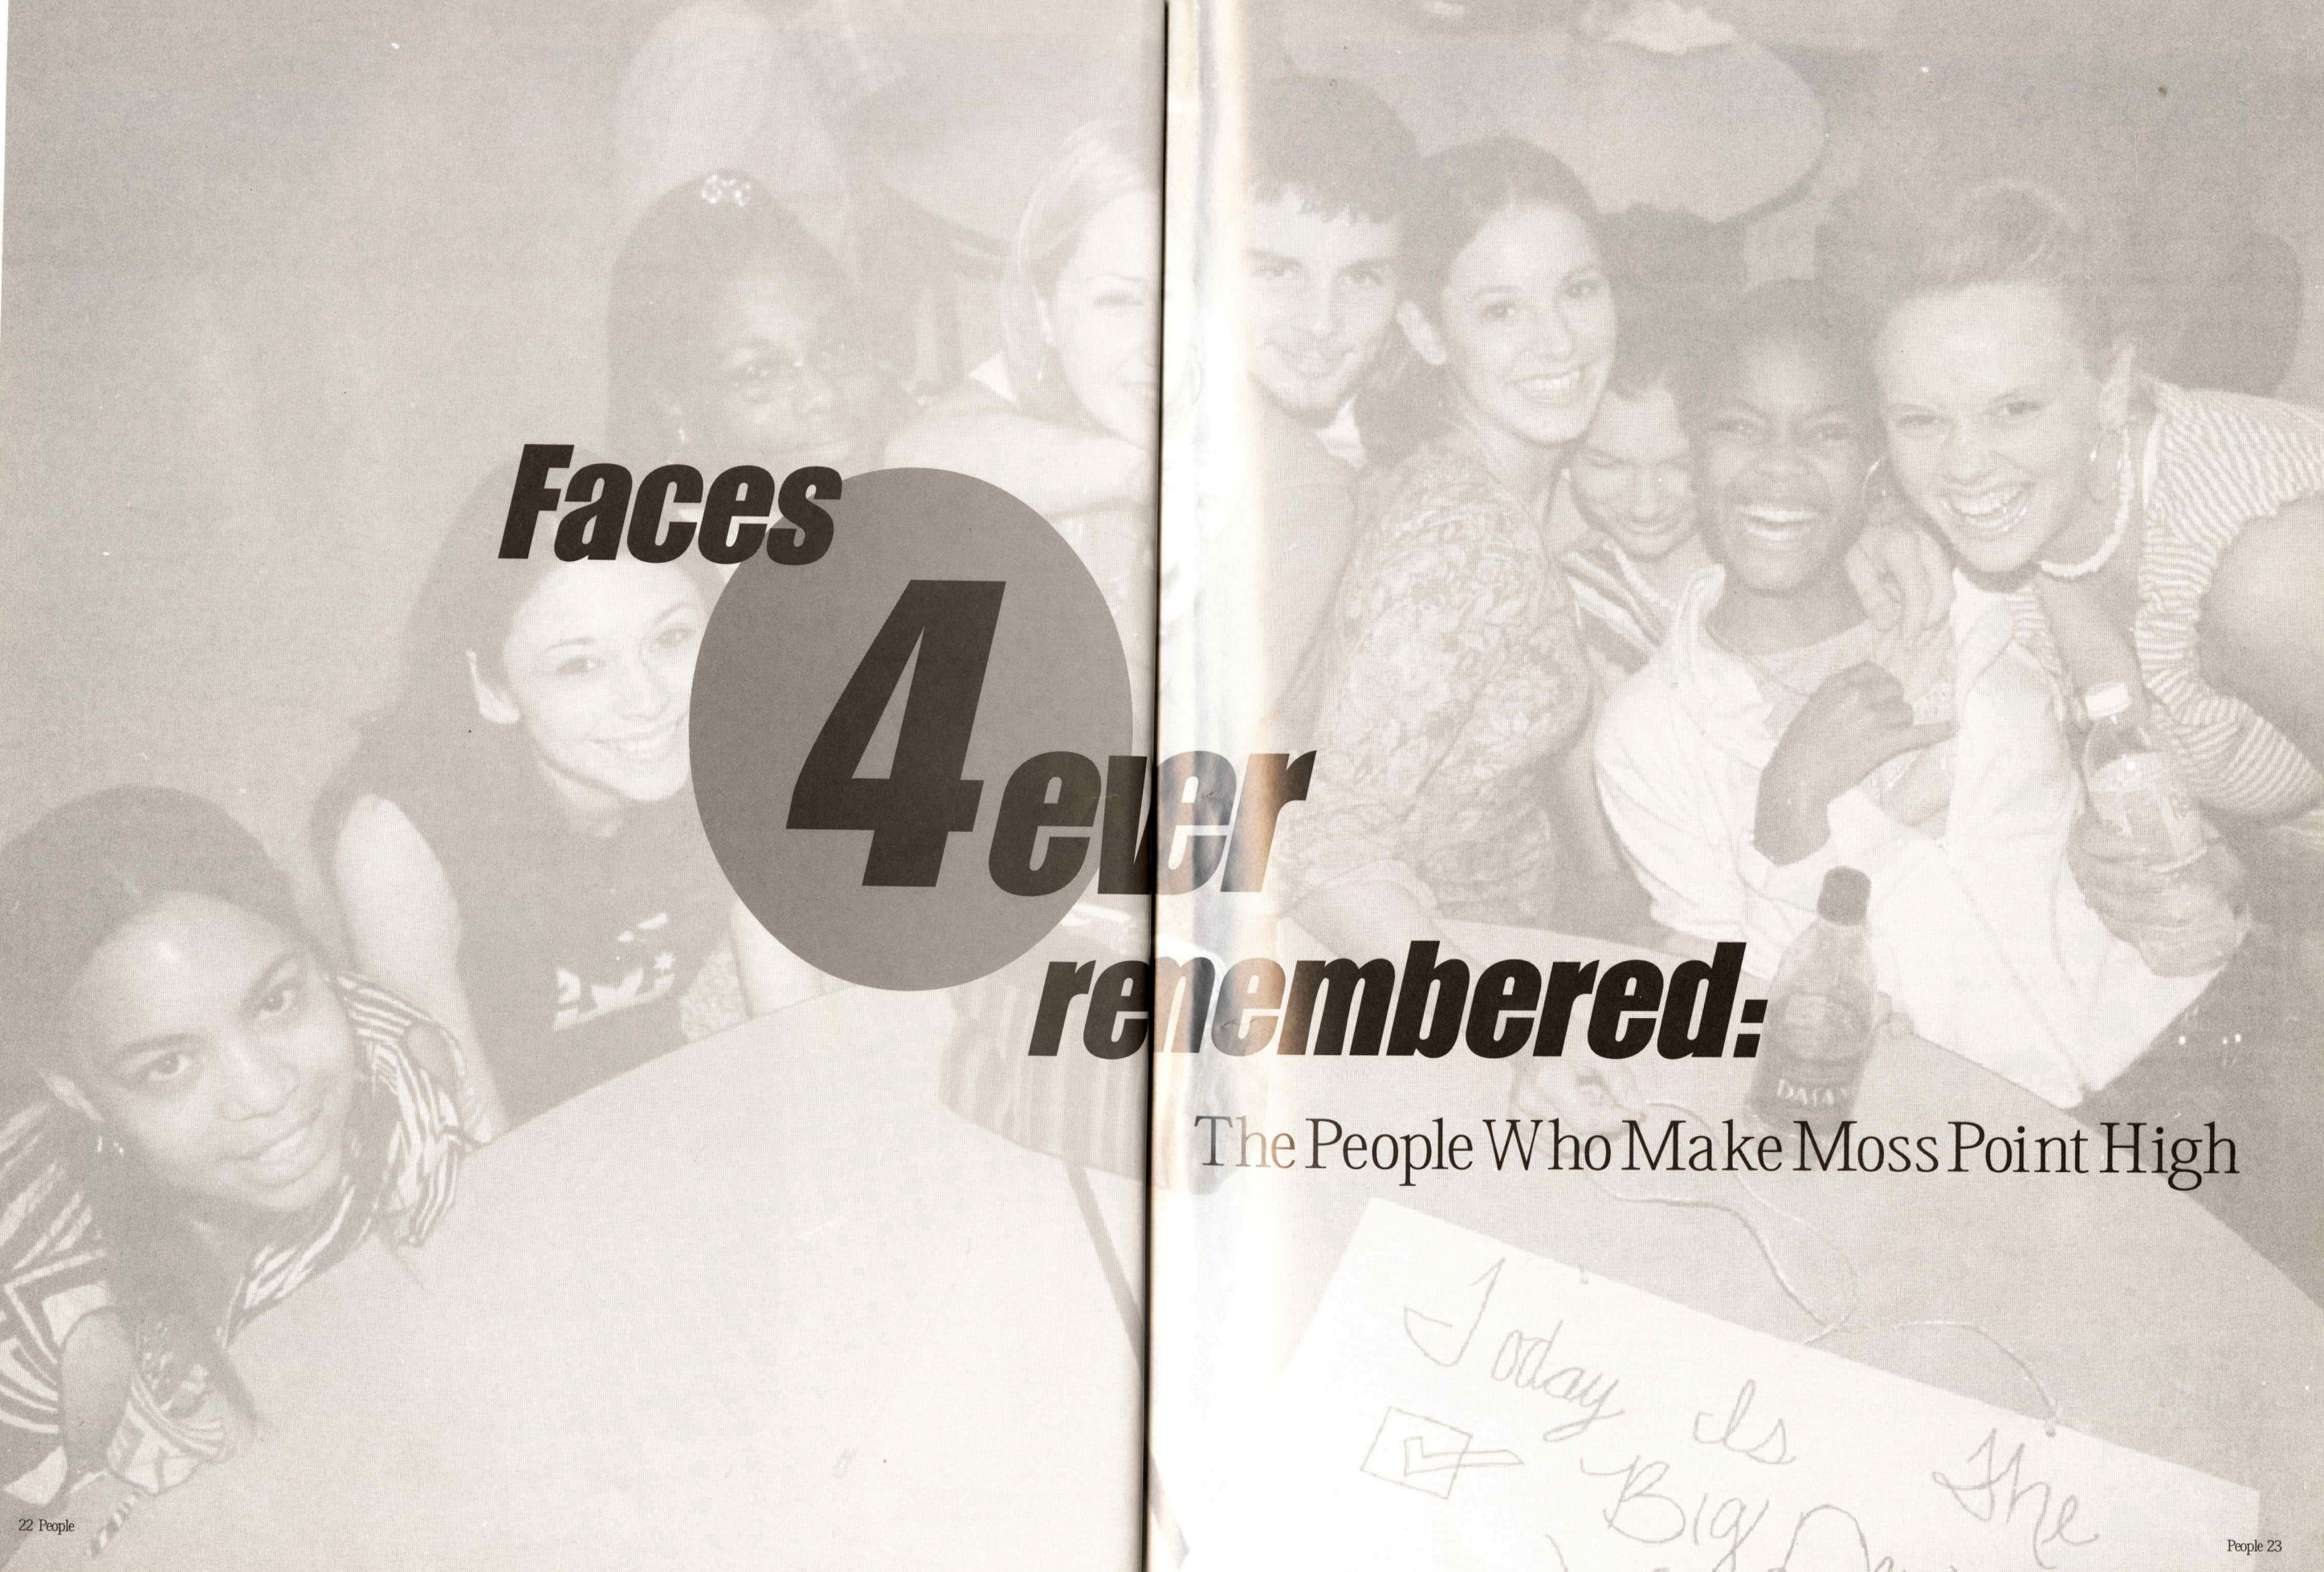

The senior class emerged victorious in the annual hall decorating competition. Reminiscent of the classic Freddy Krueger movies, their hall was themed "Nightmare on Senior Hall."

The first ever freshman class of Moss Point High School dominated the parade float competition, demonstrating their creativity and proving themselves to the rest of the upper-classmen.

A group of diverse students, including young men and women of various ethnicities, are smiling and posing for a group photo. They are gathered around a table, some holding water bottles. The background is slightly blurred, focusing attention on the students.

Dear Students:

What is a yearbook? Is it just another set of pages inside a cover? No, indeed, a yearbook has a special mission. It is representative of the hard work in putting pieces of a puzzle together to create a set of memories. The yearbook represents relationships among students and teachers. Is a yearbook just a book to go on a shelf? No, it is a tangible object which reflects intangibles of love, respect, friendship, hope, goals, energy, and success.

The early pages in the yearbook include student life, where one can reflect on times shared with classmates. Faces of faculty members come soon after. They smile at us from the small picture boxes because they know they have a special calling in helping young people build futures.

Next, one will find the senior pictures. Thirteen years together are reflected in words and pictures. The yearbook puts closure on the first stage of education. These seniors will be entering the second stage of education. These seniors will be entering the second stage by entering the workplace, the military and/or attending an institution of higher learning. Bittersweet is the taste of losing these fine students to the world at large.

Our other high school classes follow with rows of pictures of young people striving, year by year, to meet the academic challenges, while enjoying extracurricular activities such as athletics, clubs, band, and special activities. Who's Who honors are included to place a spotlight on future leaders.

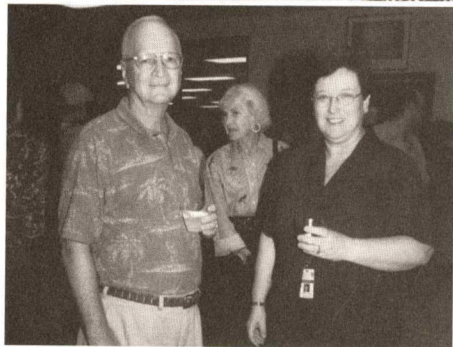

At the end of the yearbook the advertisements have special meaning. They show business and community support with many special greetings to students.

This yearbook is the whole package, wrapped in school colors and decorated with the tiger mascot. One can almost hear the band playing our favorite tune, "I'm So Glad I Go To Moss Point High."

Our congratulations go to all included in this "book" which has that special mission of launching many into the future. We pray that you all have health and happiness.

Love,

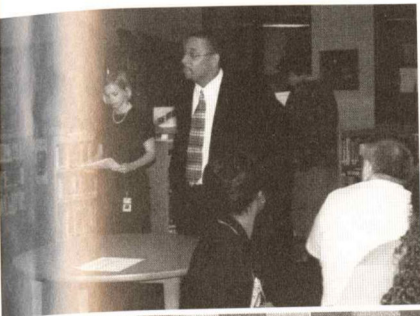

Tressie Shaw Harper, Ph.D.

Mr. Willie Goins, Principal

Dear Moss Point High School,

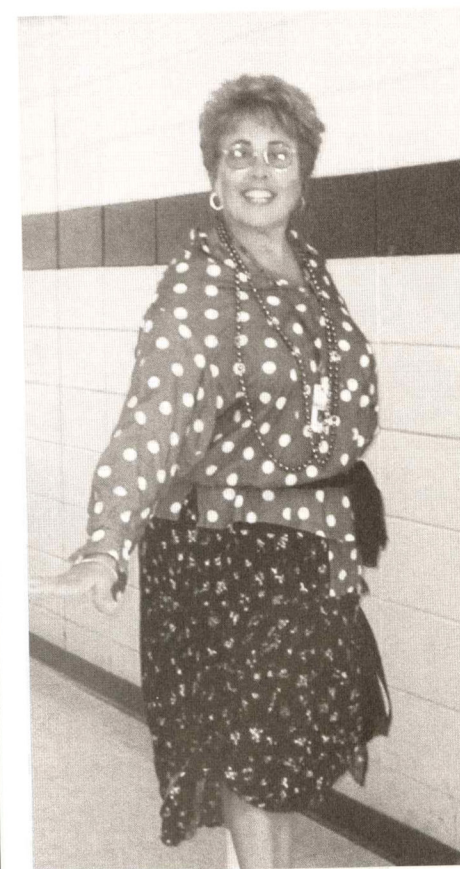

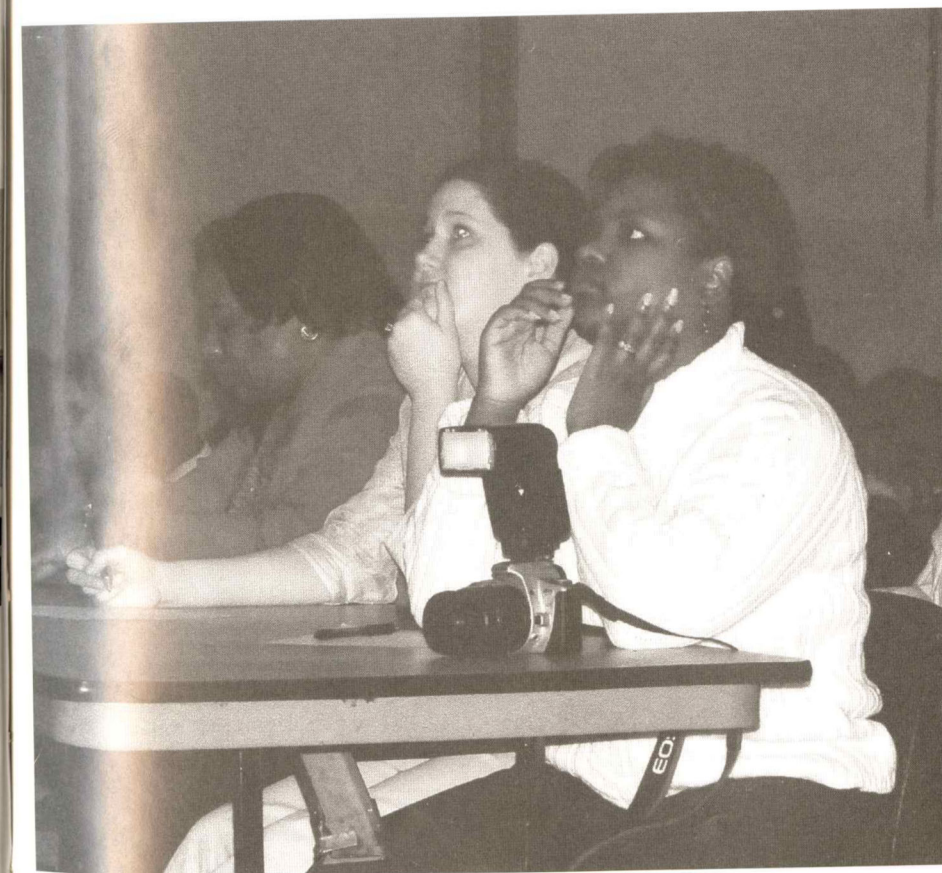

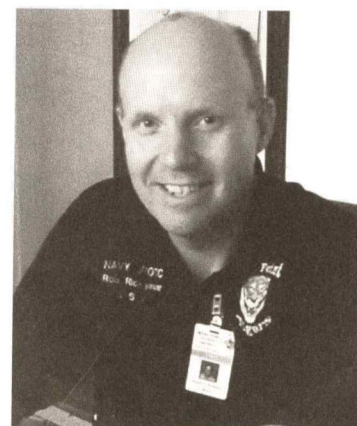

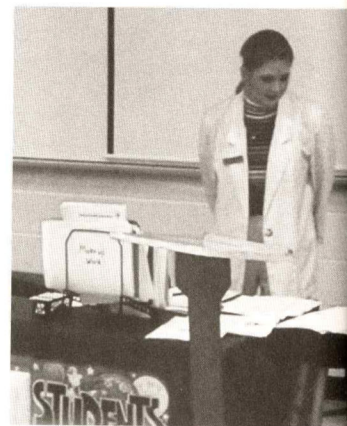

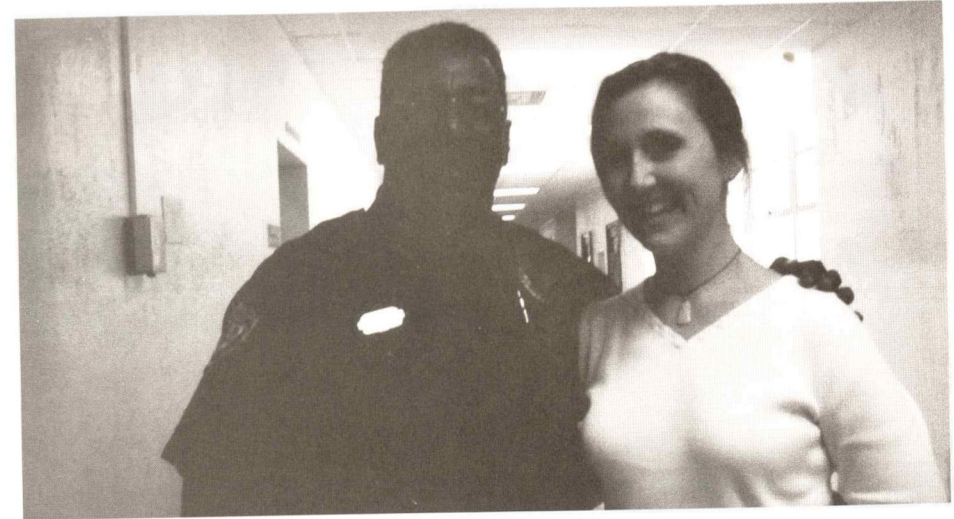

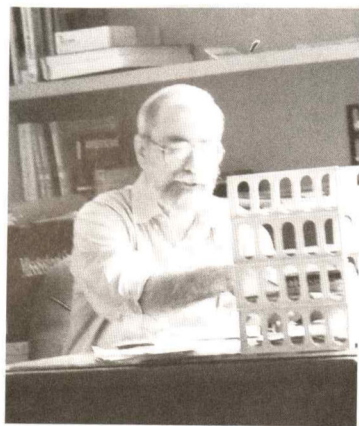

Each year of our lives leaves impressions and memories that will be with us for a lifetime. One reason these impressions remain vivid is because of pictures, videos, yearbooks, and various other memorabilia. As we look back, we can relive the special events and moments of our lives.

I believe the high school years hold many special memories. This yearbook, "All 4 One, One 4 All" brings us together as we reflect on the impressions that will last a lifetime.

The yearbook staff, its advisor, and all who played a part in bringing this work to pass, I extend to you my hardy thanks. I'm sure you've worked long and hard, and we can now see the fruits of your labor.

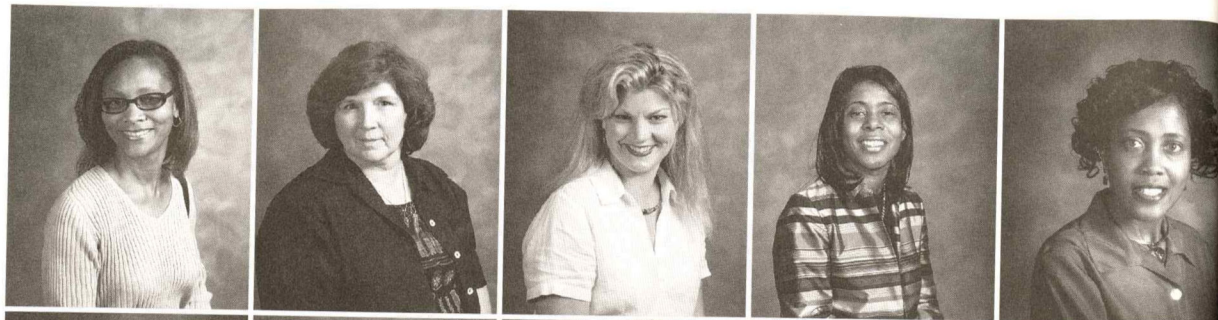

This year has been full of challenges; however, I feel we met those challenges full steam ahead. Continue to reach for the stars and be the best that you can be. May His blessings be with you always.

Sincerely,

Governor's School & Boys, Girls State

Over the summer of 2003, Moss Point sent a group of seniors to represent the school in the annual Boys State, Girls State, and Governor's School. The accolades were numerous; Damarcus Hughes and Anna McCorvey brought back the title of "governor" from Boys and Girls State, respectively, Damarcus and Seth Walley were the selected to attend Boys Nation, and J.J. McCorvey dominated the debate tournament at Governor's School. Though our school was put on the map at both events, the students each brought back something different. Boys and Girls State, concentrating more on the government of our nation, instilled leadership and group work, while Governor's School, dealing more with scholarship, involved advanced courses, seminars, and simulating college life.

GIRLS STATE (below)- Clockwise from top right: Cillora Hicks, Anna McCorvey, Pia Mobley, Tamika Baxter, Lindsey Presley, Lauren Presley, Siara Smith, Carmen Torres, and Jade Matthews.

What Was the Most Important Part of Your Experience?

"My most important moment at Girls State was when I ran for the Supreme Court Judge and got to meet all the different girls around Mississippi. It was a memorable experience."

-Pia Mobley, Girls State

"During those wonderful three weeks, I got to meet many wonderful people and made life-long friends. I talk to many of these people at least once a week and get to see them often."

-Hawley Robertson, Governor's School

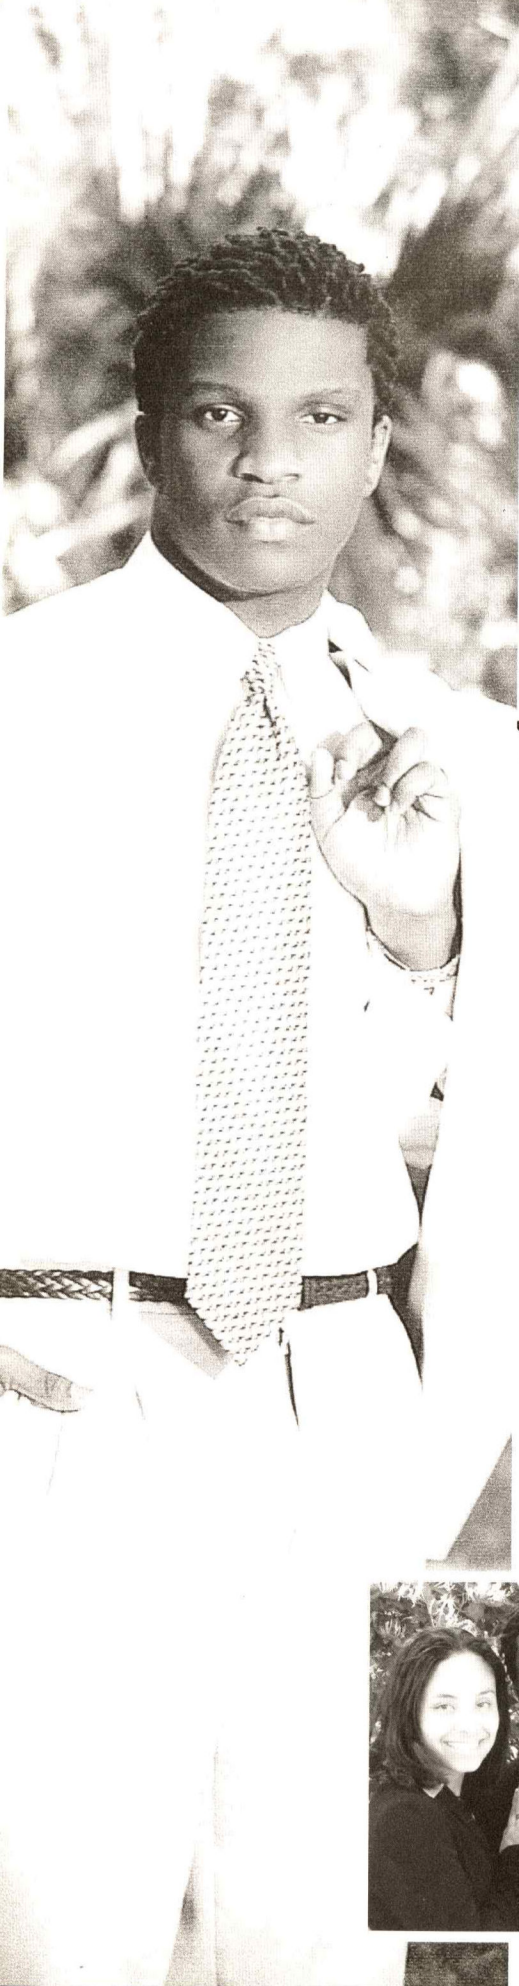

"While at Girls State, I got the chance to learn more about the way our government is run. It opened my eyes to a lot of things."

-Anna McCorvey, Girls State

"I gained respect for more politicians because instead of feeding into stereotypes, I replaced them with my own experience as a politician at Boys State."

-Damarcus Hughes, Boys State

Girls Basketball

The Lady Tigers' 2003-2004 season started out great, but after a serious effort to refine their team unity, they were able to drive the ball all the way to Jackson for the state tournament. Unfortunately, our girls' path to championship was brought to a halt by the Gulfport Admirals.

MP Football

The Moss Point Tiger Football team was out to prove itself at the start of the 2003 season. With older leadership reduced to the number of only 18 seniors, the Tigers had an enormous feat in front of them. The season was filled with great victories, close defeats, and a crucial finish. With a final record of 5 wins and 6 losses, the Tigers exhibited an enormous wealth of talent and evidence of good lessons learned.

Fast & Slow Pitch Softball

The Lady Tigers had a strong season and it looked as if a four-peat was in their grasp, but the season came to a climatic end when they lost the state championship by one run to Grenada High School. But with a 24-8 record and three back-to-back championships under its belt, it is undeniable that talent continues to surge through the Moss Point softball team.

GAME PREP (left)- Coach Lewis takes some time to listen to some last minute game ideas.

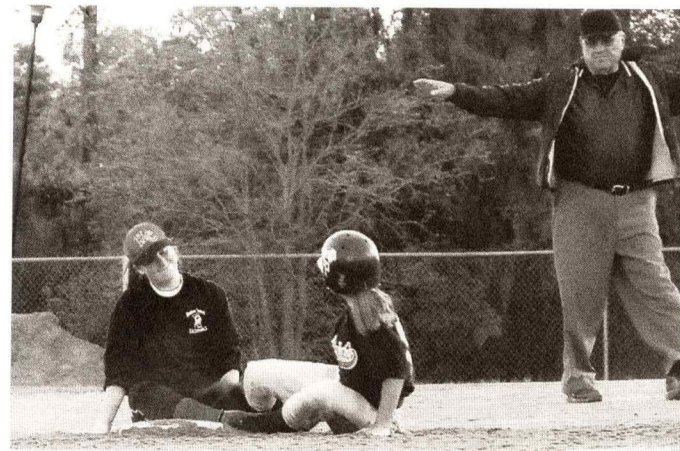

LAST AT BAT (below)- LaKeitha Aultman, Chardetta James, and Shayla Dickerson, all seniors, stand tall for the camera, as this will mark their last run with the Lady Tigers.

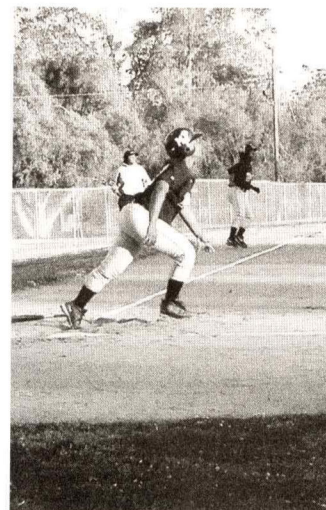

DOWN AND DIRTY (left)- Mimi Bether squats down in her best stance to knock that softball out of the park.

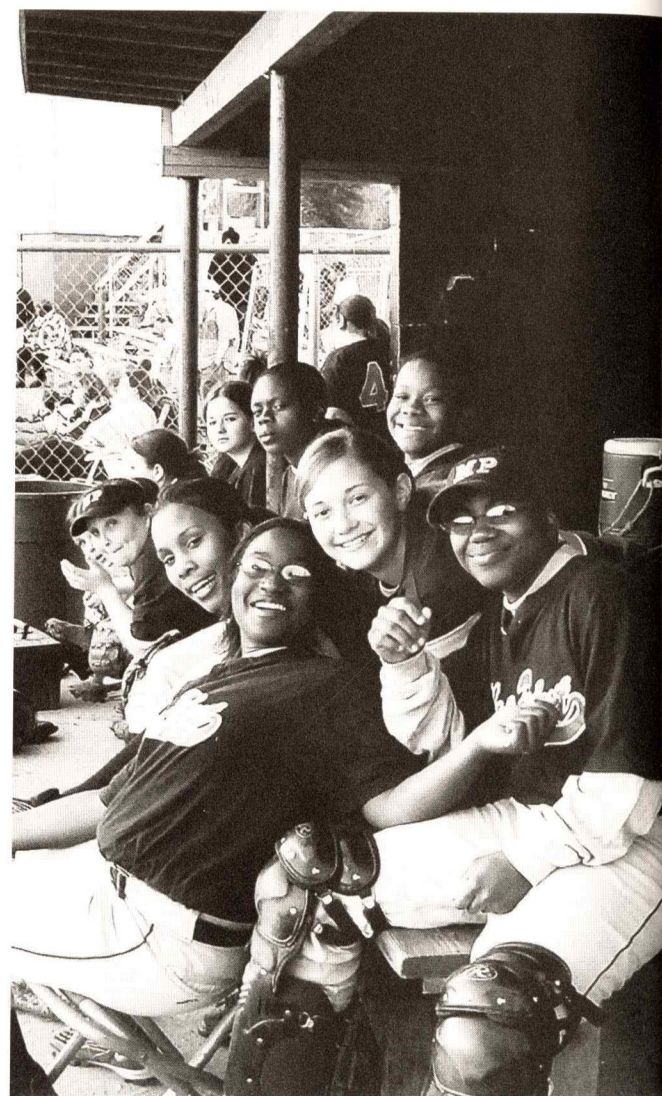

SWING & A MISS (below)- Kenya Seals, a junior high player, makes a great swing but misses her mark.

ON THE LOOKOUT (right)- Nicia Lee zooms in on the destination of her ball before she takes off.

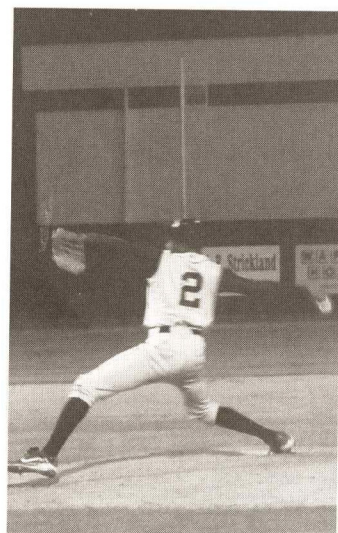

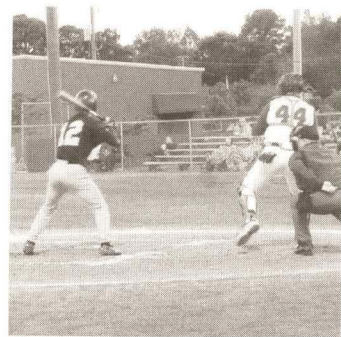

STICKING TOGETHER (right)- The team shows their renewed unity in a group shot.

TIGERS VS. PANTHERS (below)- The Tigers face off against long-time rival, Pascagoula.

ALL-AROUND PLAYER (above)- Sophomore James McCarty shows his field versatility as he winds up on the mound.

ALMOST OUT OF THE PARK (right)- A player whacks the ball but it unfortunately goes foul.

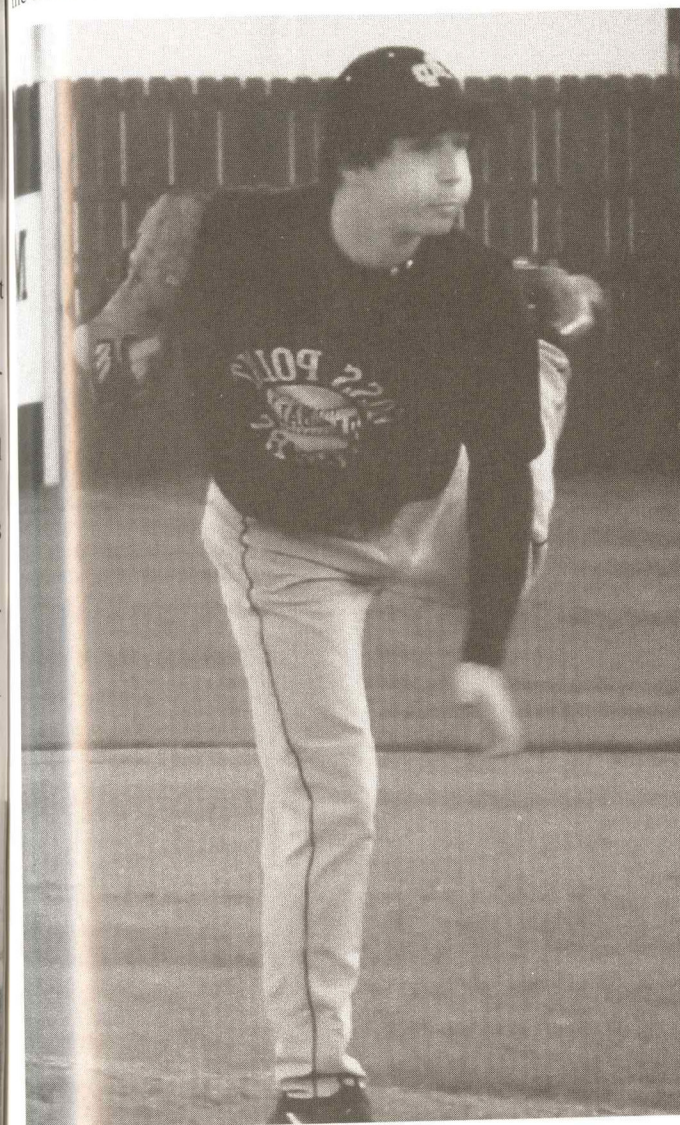

MEETING OF THE MINDS (below)- The team takes a minute to discuss the gameplan on the field.

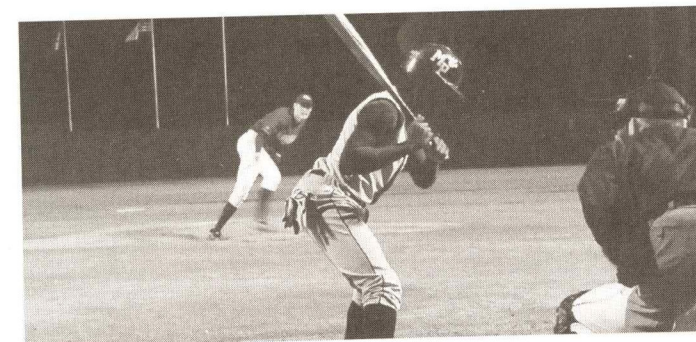

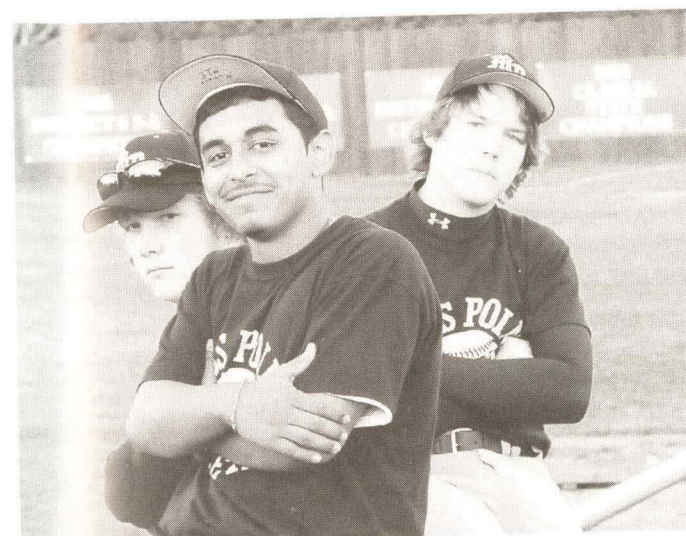

MP Baseball

Though the Moss Point Tiger baseball team didn't fulfill its set goals and expectations, the lack of seniority and experience has prepared them for a successful run next year. The 4-20 record worked to the team's advantage, as the underclassmen have learned leadership, patience, and unity, taking small steps to mold their team into the all-stars they dream to be.

ALL-STAR PITCHER (below)- Trey Stewart lets loose his best pitch from the mound.

WAITING ON A RUN (above)- Senior Tristen Barnes waits on the pitcher to throw him a home run.

Cheerleading

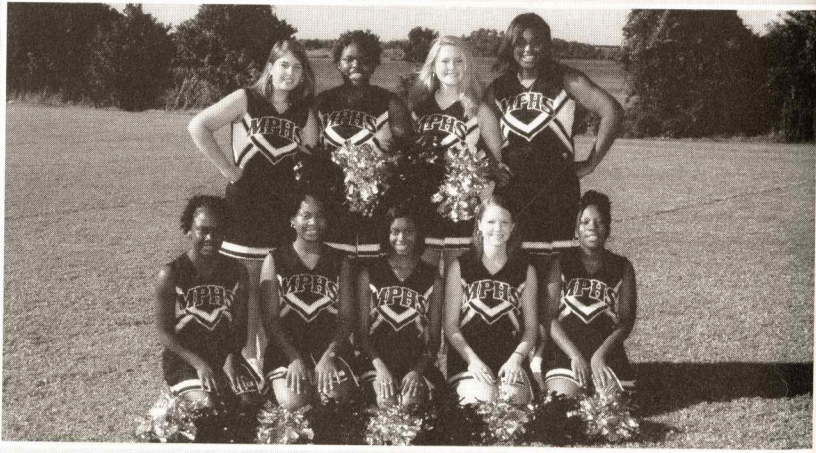

After a great summer, the Moss Point High cheerleading squad had a great year under sponsor Sherri Holmes. The talented Gulf Coast team finished well at regionals, and were excellent on the football field and basketball court. With promising new recruits and a shake-up in the coaching and advising staff, the 2004-2005 cheer season looks very prosperous.

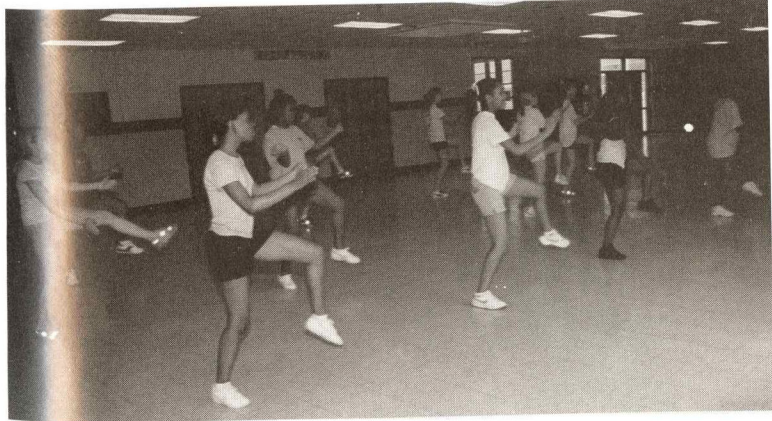

First Row: Marquita Johnson, Jennifer Bertram, Cassy Stevenson, Shakara Harris, LaTasha Bogan, Anna McCorvey, Kristina Goff, Andrikia Williams Second Row: Darrenda Anderson, Nekeshia DeBose, Katie Helms, Sarah Delancey, Lindsey Presley, Lindsay Burt, Brittany Norsworthy, Christine Downs, Claire Williams

Tiger Tennis

With a final record of 10-2, there's no doubting the success of the still-fresh addition to Moss Point athletics, the tennis team. The team had three players to make it to the state tournaments, but despite their efforts, did not place. However, they still had a great time and were extremely proud of their prior accomplishments.

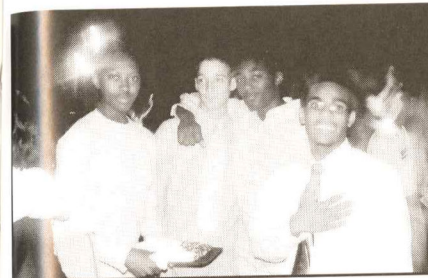

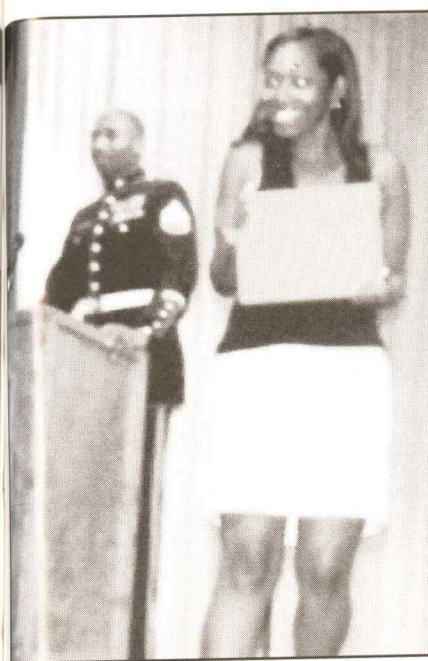

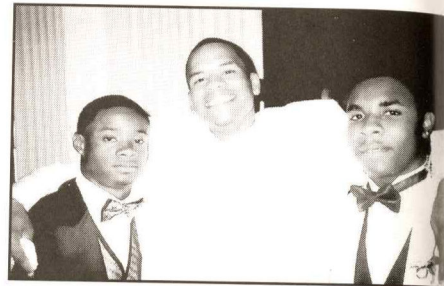

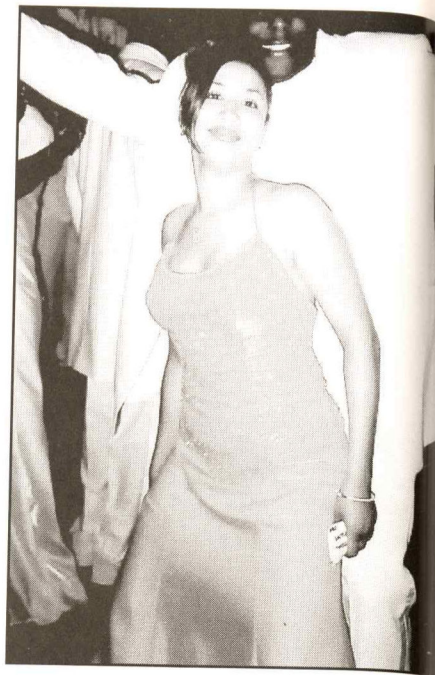

Track & Field

This year, the team ran hard, jumped high, and raised standards for Moss Point track. Thanks to Coach David Maxwell's constant encouragement and the team's undying spirits, they dominated district and regional tournaments. The sprinting Tigers even took the most participants to South State and eventually became the #10 track and field team in the State 5-A Track Meet.

Dear MPHS Student Body,

I would just like to thank each and every one of you for allowing me the opportunity to bring you memories of this eventful school year.

Of course, there were some hardships, and at times we wondered if a 2004

Growler was going to be a possible feat to accomplish. Time and circumstance were definitely not on our side this year, but the Growler broke through with another successful volume.

Seniors, remember the times we've shared at MPHS, and cherish them with all your heart. But with us gone, the juniors and other underclassmen must continue to hold up the light and carry on the legacy of Moss Point High School. Good luck in all your future endeavors, and as you flip through these pages over and over again, look at yourself and your school year and encourage yourself to constantly evolve in all aspects. After all, what are life's experiences worth if you don't grow from them?

Yours truly,

J.J. McCorvey

Editors' Farewell

Dear Friends,

This is my final year at Moss Point High

School, and my final year on the Growler

staff. Even with all of the trying times, I have enjoyed every minute of both working on the yearbook staff and being part of Moss Point

High School student body. It was truly a valuable experience and I would not trade it for anything in the world.

I would like to thank everyone who supported me and the Growler staff, especially Mr. Willie Goins. I truly appreciate everything that you have done for me these past three years. This has been an incredible year and I hope that the pages of this yearbook capture the memories of the students. To the seniors, as you graduate and move into the real world, stay focused and reach for the stars. Never forget the wonderful memories we shared at Moss Point High School.

Love always,

Carmen Felicia Torres

“Our Inspiration”

*An inspiration fallen
We're so saddened;
We're so pained
We've learned our last lesson
We've come short
Yet we've also gained
An inspiration fallen
Who believed in us
And enlightened our minds
Expanded our knowledge
An education she contributed to us
Another like her will be impossible to find
An inspiration fallen We're saddened as your name exits our mouths
No longer can your teachings be heard in our ears
But in our hearts, your voice rings loud
The wings of an eagle, you now sit firmly upon
Your battle is now over,
Your battle, you have won!*
